Hallmarking to push growth for India's top jewellers by over 20% in 2022

Hallmarking is expected to push up growth for India's top gold and jewellery companies, including Tanishq, Malabar Gold & Diamonds, and Senco Gold & Diamonds, by more than 20% next year. Rating agency ICRA and some of the organised players in the sector said consumers are shifting towards hallmarked jewellery as they believe such products get more attention on purity.

Exports of plain gold jewellery from India to Dubai fell 24% in April-November

Exports of plain gold jewellery from India to Dubai fell 24% in April-November compared to the pre-Covid-19 period as the pandemic took the sheen off the biggest overseas market for local traders. Dubai's jewellery wholesalers said they reduced purchases from India because tourists were not coming to the country amid the pandemic.

BSE ALL SET TO ROLL OUT ELECTRONIC GOLD RECEIPTS

Electronic gold receipts are now ‘securities’, says Finance Ministry

The Finance Ministry has specified ‘Electronic Gold Receipt’ as ‘securities’ under the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act 1956, paving way for trading of such instruments on any new gold exchanges that may come up in the country. Like shares, EGRs will be held in demat form and can be converted into physical gold when needed.
